

Jay Steiner is the Battalion Chief of Professional Standards and Training for the Seminole County EMS/Fire/Rescue Division. Chief Steiner has been with Seminole County EMS/Fire/Rescue for over 20 years. He is a State of Florida Certified Fire Officer I and Fire Instructor II. Chief Steiner holds an Associate's Degree in Emergency Medical Services from Seminole State College. He is also the Founder of the Central Florida Fitness Collaborative, which places its emphasis on the health and well-being of firefighters. Additionally, Chief Steiner performs Annual Fitness Assessments, Candidate Physical Ability Testing, Incumbent Physical Ability Testing and is a Nationally-Accredited ACE Fitness Instructor.