Dear Commissioners:

This is to advise you that on March 8, 2012, the Charter Review Commission (CRC) dissolved itself and ended its' 2011-2012 session without making any recommendations to change the Seminole County Charter. We held a total of six (6) meetings beginning last September, including two (2) public hearings to take input from the citizens of Seminole County. The CRC reviewed and discussed many areas of the Charter, including those Charter changes which were proposed in 2006 and approved by the voters, but later were struck down by the courts. In the final analysis, the CRC was of the opinion that the Seminole County Charter did not need to be amended at this time.

It was a pleasure for myself and the members of the CRC to be of service to Seminole County. Please feel free to call or write me should you have any questions.

Respectfully,

Stephen H. Coover, Chairman
