Teen Programs

Free programs for middle & high school students
North (Sanford) Branch Winter Schedule
December 2016 – February 2017

Every Saturday: Game Changers from 12:30-2:30 PM in the teen area. Play board and card games as well as chess with other middle and high school students. Drop in anytime. Families welcome.

2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month: Dungeons and Dragons from 5:00-7:30 PM in the teen area. All level players, including beginners, are welcome to join us for this teen-led, fantasy role playing game.

December

12/17 (Saturday): Teen Library Council- Snow Globes & Pizza Party from 2:00-3:30 PM in the meeting room. We will be making DIY snow globes in honor of the chillier season. Join us as we say farewell to 2016 with a pizza party!

12/28 (Wednesday): Teen Book Club from 3:00 PM-4:00 PM in the meeting room. We will be reading The Sun Is Also A Star by Nicola Yoon. Be the first to read this brand new, award-winning book about two unlikely people falling in love and love's harsh realities. For cynics and romantics alike.

January

1/14 (Saturday): Teen Library Council- Reading Paws Dogs from 2:00-3:30 PM in the meeting room. Come read to therapy dogs or just sit and chat with their owners while making a furry friend. We will also have adult coloring pages and origami contests to keep the Zen-feel of the afternoon.

February

2/4 (Saturday): Teen Library Council- 2nd Annual Iron Chef Anti-Valentine's Day Chocolate Challenge from 2:00-3:30 PM in the meeting room. It's back! Take the challenge to make innovative food creations. Judging based solely on designs. Will you be the next Iron Chef?
