Northwest Library Branch Fall Schedule December - February

December

12/14 (Wednesday) 4 p.m. in the meeting room: Teen Library Council Presents the first annual Teen Winter Games. Join us for our first annual Teen Winter Games and see if you have what it takes to compete for sweets! Hot cocoa and good times will be had by all!

January

1/11 (Wednesday) 4 p.m. in the meeting room: Teen Library Council – New Year / New You / New TLC. The New Year is a time for a fresh start, and the Seminole County Public Library, Northwest Branch wants to hear from you! This is your chance to voice your needs from the library, create change, and learn more about gaining community service hours. If you want to be a positive voice in the community, then this is the meeting for you.

1/25 (Wednesday) 4 p.m. in the meeting room: Teen Crafternoon. Want to stay cozy for the winter? We do too! This month's DIY project will be "arm knitting". It's a quick and easy way to make a comfy infinity scarf to wear or share. Feel free to bring two large balls of "bulky weight" yarn with you, or use the yarn provided.

February

2/8 (Wednesday) 4 p.m. in the meeting room: Teen Library Council Family Freud – Valentine's Day Edition. Team up, win candy, have fun!

2/22 (Wednesday) 4 p.m. in the meeting room:
Teen Crafternoon – Shrinky Dinks.

Create tiny charms of awesomeness to wear or share!
Supplies to be provided (while they last).
