

QUICK RESPONSE TRAINING PROGRAM

TTY (via the Florida Relay Service): 711

An equal opportunity employer/program.

Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND GUIDELINES

The Quick Response Training (QRT) application process is designed as a collaborative effort between the business requesting training, its chosen fiscal agent – a community college, area technical center or state university – and the local economic development organization. [See Florida Statutes 288.047(3)]. The Quick Response Training Program is a state-funded grant program that provides funding to selected businesses to train their new, full-time employees. Funding is provided in the form of a performance based reimbursable grant, 24-month maximum term. A business pays for pre-approved, direct training-related costs, and is reimbursed by the State of Florida upon submission and approval of required documentation.

The QRT program is designed to increase the competitiveness of Florida businesses in the global economy. All applications for new and expanding businesses creating new high-quality jobs will be given equal consideration and are processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please contact the Quick Response Training Program office for assistance before submitting your proposal.

BUSINESSES APPLYING FOR FUNDING:

- ◆ must be “for profit” and create new, permanent, full-time (35+ hours per week) jobs for Florida workers requiring customized entry-level skills training not available at the local level
- ◆ should create high-quality jobs paying an average annual wage of at least 115 percent of local or state private sector wages, whichever is lower, unless the business is located in a distressed urban or rural community, Enterprise/Empowerment Zone, or brownfield area (ES202 wage data)

{Average annual wage means the average, for a twelve month period or, if less than a twelve month period, converted to a twelve month period, of actual wages. This includes salaries, commissions, bonuses, drawing accounts (against future earnings), prizes and awards (if given by the employer for the status of employment), vacation pay, sick pay, and other payments paid to employees consistent with Florida’s Agency for Workforce Innovation’s definition. Benefits are not included.}

- ◆ must produce an exportable (beyond regional markets) good or service
- ◆ may not qualify for funding if relocating from one Florida community to another community (F.S. 288.047)(2). You may view these statutes at Florida Statutes

The following applies to training services:

STEP 3 STATE FISCAL MANAGEMENT

Fiscal Management Responsibility for the grant is handled by a public educational institution (technical center, community college, university) located in the same region as the company. This entity completes Section III and assists with the application process, monitors the training program, collects and maintains monthly reports and administers the grant funds.

STEP 4 SUBMITTING THE APPLICATION

STEP 5 NOTIFICATION

All applicants will be notified in writing of whether their application is approved. Notification for approved applications will state the amount of the award and the conditions of approval. Notification will be followed by execution of a contract between the applicant, the State Fiscal Management entity (fiscal agent), and Workforce Florida. Funds will be disbursed in accordance with terms stated in the contract. If an application is not approved, notification will specify the reason(s) for non-approval.

Workforce Florida is tasked to supply all Florida businesses with a qualified workforce. In doing so, Florida has developed a One-Stop Career System through the state. This system offers services to all employers in Florida through Regional Workforce Boards and One-Stop Career Centers. You can view the centers by region at the Workforce Florida web site, Employ Florida. The One-Stop Centers can furnish many valuable services at no cost to the employer. Some of these services are: applicant assessment and screening; referral of qualified job applicants; access to national, state, and local employment data and labor market information; on-the-job training; and customized training.

If your application is approved, you will be required to post your new hire positions through the local One-Stop Center and allow the Center the opportunity to coordinate or assist in filling your job positions.

If you have any questions or need assistance in completing the application, please contact the Quick Response Training office at (850) 921-1119.

We look forward to working with you.
